#1 New York Times Bestseller Newbery Honor Book Winner of the Schneider Family Book Award (Middle School) Wall Street Journal Best Children's Books of 2015 New York Public Library's 100 Books for Reading and Sharing An exceptionally moving story of triumph against all odds set during World War II, from the acclaimed author of Jefferson's Sons and for fans of Number the Stars. Ten-year-old Ada has never left her one-room apartment. Her mother is too humiliated by Ada's twisted foot to let her outside. So when her little brother Jamie is shipped out of London to escape the war, Ada doesn't waste a minute—she sneaks out to join him. So begins a new adventure for Ada, and for Susan Smith, the woman who is forced to take the two kids in. As Ada teaches herself to ride a pony, learns to read, and watches for German spies, she begins to trust Susan—and Susan begins to love Ada and Jamie. But in the end, will their bond be enough to hold them together through wartime? Or will Ada and her brother fall back into the cruel hands of their mother? This masterful work of historical fiction is equal parts adventure and a moving tale of family and identity—a classic in the making.

Many people talk about the “game of life,” yet few among the masses understand the rules that govern it. Finally, Now You Can teaches you to connect the dots of your life by looking backward. Most people give up easily when confronted by adversity, but this comprehensive yet straightforward book will show you that there is power beyond you, an ability you can tap into in time of need. Anyone can feel good, be positive, and have faith under good circumstances, but we are most challenged mentally, spiritually, and physically when we get knocked down. It takes grace to deal with the floor, grace to stand back up, and grace to start over again. Take full responsibility for your life! When change and achievement knock at your door, grab the opportunity and say to all odds, “I am in control here. I am not going to let circumstances keep me down. I am not going to let occurrences destroy me. I am coming back better and stronger than ever.” It shall be your declaration of faith—your mantra for moving forward. Don’t give up; there is always an answer to everything. GRACE has you covered!

After the great success obtained with "The mystery of the book", Angelo Grassia returns with his second book, a story full of mystery, love and feelings. "Finally we are here" is the continuation of "The mystery of the book". Laura, a beautiful girl with green eyes, after reading "The mystery of the book", impressed by the story decides to contact the author for more information. The two meet at the Bar Bazzanti in Gaeta, the same Bar where last year he had known Sabrina, another beautiful girl with green eyes. Laura tells she was fascinated by the story, and she bought from the same second-hand dealer a ring belonging to Claudia and also a postcard Vittorio had sent just before they became husband and wife. This was the last postcard left. The only one missing from Angelo's collection. Laura shows it to him and Angelo is impressed. He thinks it was Fate who sent Laura with that postcard and the message written on it was directed to him. On the postcard there was written: Finally we are with love, Vittorio. From this message Angelo understands it is now time to publish the entire manuscript of Vittorio, he had received as a gift the year before from a junk dealer never seen before. The manuscript tells about the mutual feelings between father and son, and about the beautiful love story between Vittorio and Claudia, they were engaged to meet in a street in Como called "the street of the stars", where the stars, in fact, with their magical splendour they seemed to be whispering: "Love yourselves The best thing in life is love!"

Enclosed is a collection of love letters, inspired by the Holy Spirit, reminding us of God's promises written in the Bible. The readings speak of His everlasting love for us. They speak of the love, peace, and joy that He wishes to fill us with. You are drawn up close and personal with our heavenly Father—exactly where He wants you to be. The messages will warm your heart and comfort your soul. Come, read, and be blessed. “‘And it shall come to pass in the last days,’ says God, ‘that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy.’” —Acts 2:17 “Having gifts differing according to the grace that is given us, let us use them; if prophecy, let us prophesy in proportion to our faith.” —Romans 12:6 “For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be encouraged.” —1 Corinthians 14:13 The above scriptures speak to my only qualifications to share the words written in this book. I am not a theologian or minister of any church— only an obedient servant of God. These love letters from God, written from 1981–2013, assure us of His love for us and the peace and joy that He longs to fill us with. Chicago, Illinois is my homeland. I was born, educated and raised my family there. I also lived in Indiana, Nevada, and now Texas. Each of my four children and grandchildren live in different states. I am a retired widow and enjoy traveling to visit each of them. It was my pleasure to teach primary children for thirty-seven years. It was a joy to learn from them, for as God said, “Assuredly I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of God” (Matthew 18:3). I pray that my aged outer self never penetrates my childlike heart. Being retired has given me the time to put in print a lot of what our Lord has spoken to me. I know that you will be blessed with this and future books.
