movies move us in a way that no other form of communication can – in fact some people consider movies to be the “parables” of life today. Movies are a great way of getting us to think about life’s ultimate questions. J. John and Mark Stibbe provide unique spiritual insights into eight popular movies. These eight studies are suitable for personal or group use, or as a teaching programme on a larger scale. Featured in this volume are: The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Rings Simon Birch The Green Mile Bridget Jones’s Diary What Women Want Unfaithful Minority Report Shrek

[] As an artist, I love love LOVE the art in this book, I think its not only beautiful, but perfect for children. My son spent a lot of time just studying every colorful page. We read it twice in the first sitting because he was so happy! He's not yet 1, so getting him to sit still for story time is tough, and this book was such a hit he sat through it with nothing but a big smile and lots of pointing to the stuff he liked on the pages. I highly recommend this book :) Get it get it get it!"-Amazon Customer Review "Written in a very simple way but with a profound message for both adults and kids."-Amazon Customer Review "I LOVED it. The Earth is in ruins. Cities and nations destroyed. Mankind is extinct. Brant and Arsha are synthetics, machines made in the image of people. They dream of bringing humans back into the world and have the technology to succeed, but the obstacles in their way are mounting. Not only are their own conflicting ideals creating a rift between them, but now the sinister Marauders are closing in as they seek revenge on Brant. Out in the wasteland, strange lights and mysterious objects in the sky herald the arrival of new factions that seek to control the region. Even in the once quiet streets of their own city, malevolent forces are beginning to unfurl that threaten the sanctity of everything they hold dear, jeopardising the future that is within their grasp.
